

Itasca Orchestra & Strings Program

Student Concert

It is time to start discussing the details of our first concert! Please read through the important information on this flier. Should you have any additional questions, you can email me at: sarah@itascaorchestra.org.

Dress Rehearsal:

Wednesday, December 13 from 3:30-5:00

Wilcox Theater, Reif

Prelude and Overture students should be done by 4:15, and can be picked up at that time. Intermezzo and Chamber students should arrive by 4:10 and will be finished at 5:00. At this rehearsal, all ensembles will have the chance to perform their music on the stage. We will also practice getting on and off the stage easily, and the students will see where to place their cases and belongings. The students do not need to wear their concert clothes to this rehearsal.

Concert:

Thursday, December 14 at 6p.m.

Wilcox Theater, Reif

Concert dress is all black

Students should arrive at the auditorium at 5:30 to get unpacked, tuned, and in place. The students will be sitting with their orchestras in reserved seats at the front of the auditorium. Cello and bass students will have places backstage to place their instruments during the concert. Students should bring their orchestra music and folders. The folders will be turned in after the concert so that I can prepare them for the next concert.

Tickets will be sold at the door: $5 for Adults, Students Free.
