

Itasca Symphony Orchestra
Saturday, February 24, 2018
7:30 pm, Reif Center, Wilcox Theater

The Itasca Symphony Orchestra presents Johannes Brahms' Symphony Number 1. A work the composer began writing at the age of 22 and worked and re-worked until he deemed it performance worthy. When the work premiered in Germany in 1876, the composer was 43 years old. Brahms viewed the work as an extension of himself. Complete with dramatic strength, lyrical power and thematic cohesion, the work is considered a truly exceptional symphony.

$12 Adults, $10 Seniors, Students $5
Available at Reif Center (327-5780)
Online at www.reifcenter.org, and at the door
For complete program information go to www.itascaorchestra.org

This activity is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a MSAB Operating Support grant, thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts and cultural heritage fund.